REAR & SIDE ENTRANCES

AN EXTENSIVE RANGE OF STORMPROOF REAR AND SIDE DOORS COVERS ALL EVENTUALITIES

These doors are highly important to any home as they still need to keep intruders out and keep warmth in, as well as look attractive. At The English Door Company™, we treat these doors with the same level of attention as our front door ranges, offering you a variety of styles, colour finishes, glazing and security options. We fit the same multi-point locking systems and hinges that we fit to our front doors.

The doors are manufactured to the same exacting high standards as our front and entrance doors and provide the same excellent thermal insulation and sound proofing.

Low maintenance is even more important for these doors as often they are used more frequently in everyday life. Being able to keep them clean with a simple wipe of a damp cloth is really important. The doors are extremely durable and will retain their good looks for many years without the need for painting or other maintenance, despite enduring the knocks of day to day living.
